SPECIAL SUMMER CAMPS FOR KIDS

Karate Works and Archery Works will be offering thrilling summer camps beginning in June thru August. Both camps were rated in the Fort Worth's Top 10 Summer Camps for Kids. The Karate Works Ninja Warrior Camp is full of karate moves, actions and challenges that kids love along with things that parents also love such as Morals and Manners, Stranger Safety and Awareness along with Self Confidence builders. As an added bonus, the kids will get to make an action packed movie featuring them as the star or a day of Archery!

Archery Works, located at the Karate Works facility, offers an exciting and traditional Archery Camp using longbows and recurves. "These are the types of bows without the modern day gadgets such as wheels, pulleys, releases or sights that take away the simplicity of true archery", states the owner, Mike Gunnlaugsson. This exciting class has the kids flinging hundreds of arrows daily while learning the proper handling and safety procedures when using bows and arrows. They not only become more efficient in shooting the bow, but get to make their own quivers, arm guards and arrows along with learning how to make an actual bow string.
