Indomitable Spirit

By Mason Horton, 9 years old

The smoke was filling the house; the grease sputtered in the pan. The grease made sparks and caught the towel on fire.

"Ron, call 911," said Ron's mom.

"I am," said Ron. Sirens were nearby; everyone opened doors to see what was going on.

"It's on the first floor," said David, the fireman. "Listen up firemen, today we are going to use indomitable spirit to keep on keeping on until our last breath." They were near the fire site. They needed to get the family first. David heard yelling in the office downstairs. David found Ron and pulled him out from the house.

Meanwhile, Logan the fireman went toward the smoke in the house to find the rest of the family. They were in their bedroom. Logan got them out as quickly as he could.

"We've got everyone," said David. "Everyone get your hoses out and spray," said David. "Logan, you go to the left side; Tyler go to the front; I'll go right; Steve go to the back," said David.

"Yes sir," said the firemen. A couple of minutes later, they finished and the fire was gone.

"Yay!" said David.

"Thank you," said the family.

"You're welcome," said David. "I wasn't going to stop from finding you guys no matter what. I was never going to stop," said David.

Indomitable spirit is seen in a lot of ways. It means to keep on keeping on until your last breath. Firemen use indomitable spirit when they risk their lives each day for the safety of others.

Mason Horton did an AMAZING job with his essay requirement for his Blue Belt test! He wrote the above story to demonstrate what Indomitable Spirit means to him and we couldn't be prouder of him!

Halloween Safety Tips

Younger children should always walk with an adult

Older Children should always walk in a group

Use flashlights, glow sticks or reflective tape to make it easier to be seen at night

Do not go to any dark, unlit houses

Do not go inside a stranger's house

Cross at crosswalks and make eye contact with drivers before you cross

Walk, DON'T run

Pay attention when walking past driveways to make sure cars aren't pulling in or out

Wear non-toxic make up instead of a mask, which may hinder sight. If you wear a mask, make sure it fits well

Costumes and shoes should fit well to avoid trips and falls

Do not eat any candy until an adult checks it

Eat only factory wrapped candy and stay away from homemade treats or candy from another country
